Overview

Established in 1959, Holy Nativity Episcopal School (HNES) was a parish day school providing distinctive educational experiences for children in Panama City, Florida.

HNES has expanded through the years and chartered as a separate entity in 2003. The school operates as an 501(c)(3) outreach mission for the Holy Nativity Episcopal Church.

Mission Statement

It is the purpose of Holy Nativity Episcopal School to provide a nurturing Christian environment where students with promise receive challenging academics, enriching opportunities, and a solid foundation for developing their potential as good, caring, and responsible citizens.

HNES Strategic Plan Goals

Advancement and Growth

Sustainability

Culture and Experience

Advancement and Growth

- Plan, fund and support construction of the new STREAM Building
- Incorporate new STREAM resources into the curriculum and support the “Robotics Program”
- Continue expanding professional development opportunities
- Pursue future strategic planning for full enrollment

Sustainability

- Expand the Board calendar to include key milestones
- Increase efficiency with bi-annual Board strategic planning reviews
- Create a master plan of assets and projected replacement dates and costs
- Maintain an up to date fundraising plan

Culture and Experience

- Highlight the “Whole Child Philosophy” in all marketing materials
- Promote core values of Love, Learning, and Leadership including the incorporation of support of families, faculty, and students
- Continue to support our “Family First” philosophy, which our HOS strives to maintain across our campus
- Work with the Safety Resource Officer and HOS on the Annual Security Assessment
- Continue to explore opportunities for strengthening our relationships with partners in the community, especially our education partners
